O trabalho de Friedrich Nietzsche abalou a base do pensamento ocidental e continua a permear nossa cultura. Mesmo assim - ou talvez por isso - ele é um dos filósofos mais mal compreendidos e enigmáticos da História. Sua descrença nos valores da sociedade, sua ideia de que "Deus está morto" e seu conceito sobre o super-homem, que encara a vida sem as muletas da religião e da moral, influenciam gerações até hoje. Mas o que a maioria das pessoas realmente sabe de Nietzsche - além do bigode, da carranca e da persistente associação com o niilismo e o fascismo? Onde colocamos um pensador que era igualmente amado por Albert Camus e Adolf Hitler?

O livro de Sue Prideaux destrói mitos e leva os leitores ao mundo de um homem brilhante, excêntrico e profundamente perturbado, iluminando os eventos e as pessoas que moldaram sua vida e obra. Eu sou dinamite! é a biografia essencial para quem quer entender Nietzsche: o filósofo que previu e buscou soluções para nossos tempos conturbados. Ao final, a autora apresenta uma série de aforismos de Nietzsche que se tornaram muito populares: "Torne-se quem você é" e "O que não me mata me faz mais forte" são algumas dessas pérolas.

"Livro esplêndido. Um relato maravilhosamente escrito, e muitas vezes comovente, de uma vida dedicada à conquista da grandeza intelectual e à exploração das condições para o seu florescimento. Nietzsche ficaria orgulhoso..." - THE FINANCIAL TIMES

"Esta é a biografia que Friedrich Nietzsche tem clamado desde o dia em que perdeu a razão e abraçou um cavalo em uma praça de Turim, em 1889. Prideaux traz uma luz calma e constante para suportar o mais incandescente dos poetas-filósofos, com resultados esclarecedores". - THE GUARDIAN
