Era para ser um dia como outro qualquer na vida de Annie O'Sullivan. A corretora de imóveis levanta da cama com três objetivos: vender uma casa, fazer as pazes com a mãe e não se atrasar para o jantar com o namorado.

Naquele domingo, aparecem poucas pessoas interessadas em visitar o imóvel. Quando Annie está prestes a ir embora, uma van estaciona diante da casa e um homem sorridente vem em sua direção. A corretora tem certeza de que será seu dia de sorte. Mas o inferno está apenas começando.

Sequestrada por um psicopata, Annie fica presa durante um ano inteiro em um chalé nas montanhas, onde vive um pesadelo que deixará marcas profundas.

Construído de maneira extremamente original, Identidade roubada é o relato visceral que Annie faz à sua terapeuta dos 365 dias em que ficou à mercê do homem a quem chamava de Maníaco.

As memórias que vêm à luz ao longo de 26 sessões de análise são intercaladas com a história de sua vida desde que conseguiu escapar do chalé: a luta para superar seus medos e se reencontrar, a investigação policial para descobrir a identidade do sequestrador e a sensação perturbadora de que seu martírio ainda não acabou.

Em sua estreia, Chevy Stevens cria uma heroína inesquecível que, depois de sobreviver a uma experiência devastadora, precisa descobrir a verdade para se libertar.

Surpreendente e avassalador desde a primeira página, este thriller psicológico entrou na lista de mais vendidos do The New York Times e foi finalista dos conceituados prêmios Arthur Ellis e International Thriller of the Year.

"Um mistério envolvente sobre o sequestro de uma mulher e também a história do seu difícil retorno à vida e à liberdade - tudo isso contado por uma heroína inesquecível." - Gillian Flynn, autora de Na própria carne
