The story begins with the unnamed narrator arriving at the house of his friend, Roderick Usher, having received a letter from him in a distant part of the country complaining of an illness and asking for his help. As he arrives, the narrator notes a thin crack extending from the roof, down the front of the building and into the adjacent lake. Roderick and Madeline are the only remaining members of the Usher family. Roderick later informs the narrator that his sister has died and insists that she be entombed for two weeks in the family tomb located in the house before being permanently buried. The narrator helps Roderick put the body in the tomb, and he notes that Madeline has rosy cheeks, as some do after death.

Le narrateur (dont l'identité ne nous est pas connue) arrive à la maison de son ami Roderick Usher, ayant reçu de lui une lettre dans laquelle il se plaignait de maladie et réclamait sa présence. Cette maladie se manifeste par une hyper-acuité des sens et une grande anxiété. Madeline, la sœur jumelle de Roderick, est elle aussi malade, tombant dans des états de transes cataleptiques. Plus tard, il lui annonce que Madeline est décédée et qu'il a l'intention de conserver son corps durant 15 jours dans un caveau en attendant de procéder à l'enterrement définitif. Après avoir aidé son ami dans cette tâche, le narrateur constate une aggravation rapide de l'état de Roderick.
